

§ 15A-955. Motion to dismiss – Grounds applicable to indictments.

The court on motion of the defendant may dismiss an indictment if it determines that:

- (1) There is ground for a challenge to the array,
- (2) The requisite number of qualified grand jurors did not concur in finding the indictment, or
- (3) All of the witnesses before the grand jury on the bill of indictment were incompetent to testify. (1973, c. 1286, s. 1.)
