1 A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIVES AND MEMORIES OF WILLIAM 2 DAVID NEWSOME AND PARKER D. ROBBINS, FORMER MEMBERS OF THE 3 GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

4 Whereas, before the Civil War, many free persons of color living in North Carolina
5 were exceptional leaders in their communities, including William David Newsome and Parker 6 D. Robbins; and

7 Whereas, William David Newsome, a native of Hertford County, made a living as a 8 teacher on Roanoke Island; and

9 Whereas, after the Civil War, William David Newsome returned to Hertford County 10 where he became the first teacher of the Pleasant Plains School; and

11 Whereas, William David Newsome went on to serve in the General Assembly as a 12 member of the House of Representatives from 1868 to 1872, representing the citizens of 13 Hertford County; and

14 Whereas, Parker D. Robbins owned a 102-acre farm in Bertie County and made a 15 living as a carpenter and mechanic; and

16 Whereas, in 1863, Parker D. Robbins joined the Second United States Colored 17 Cavalry and achieved the rank of sergeant major prior to his honorable discharge in 1866; and

18 Whereas, in 1868, Parker D. Robbins became one of 15 African-Americans elected 19 to North Carolina's constitutional convention, representing Bertie County; and 20 Whereas, a year later, Parker D. Robbins served in the General Assembly as a 21 member of the House of Representatives for a term from 1869 to 1870, representing the 22 citizens of Bertie County; and

23 Whereas, between 1870 and 1877, Parker D. Robbins served as the postmaster for 24 the Town of Harrellsville in Hertford County and worked as a farmer, during which time he 25 obtained two patents for inventions associated with agriculture; and 26 Whereas, in 1877, Parker D. Robbins moved to Duplin County where he became the 27 owner of a sawmill and cotton gin, constructed homes in the Magnolia area, and built and 28 operated a steamboat known as the Saint Peter on the Cape Fear River; Now, therefore,

29 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

30 SECTION 1. The House of Representatives honors the lives of William David 31 Newsome and Parker D. Robbins for being outstanding leaders in their communities and for 32 rendering distinguished service to the State of North Carolina as members of the General 33 Assembly.

34 SECTION 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.
