24 SECTION 2. Part 1B of Article 2 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is 25 amended by adding a new section to read:

26 "§ 130A-45.14. Local health department billing of Medicaid.

27 (a) Local health departments shall have the following two options to bill public health
28 program services to Medicaid:

29 (1) Submit claim data to HIS and manage 837/835 billing files within HIS.

30 (2) Submit claim data to any approved Medicaid clearinghouse and manage
31 837/835 billing files within that system.

32 (b) The Division of Public Health may require local health departments, regardless of 33 how those local health departments choose to bill public health program services to Medicaid,
34 to submit aggregate data to the Division of Public Health.

35 (c) Local health departments shall not be required under this section to submit
36 encounter level data to the Division of Public Health or the Health Information System.

37 (d) Local health departments that bill services through a Medicaid clearinghouse shall 38 be entitled to the same reimbursement rates negotiated for agencies classified as public health
39 entities and the same Medicaid cost settlement reimbursement as those agencies that bill
40 services through HIS.

41 (e) The Division of Public Health shall provide aggregate data requirements for the 42 purposes of Medicaid cost study reimbursement on behalf of the local health departments that 43 choose to bill services through a Medicaid clearinghouse. Those local health departments shall 44 submit to the Division of Public Health the data required for the purposes of Medicaid cost
45 study reimbursement."

46 SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011.
