A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR A PROCEDURE FOR SETTING ASIDE A POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS DOG DESIGNATION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 67-4.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Set Aside of Potentially Dangerous Dog Designation. – For purposes of this subsection, "authority" means the county or municipal authority responsible for animal control. An owner of a dog determined to be a "potentially dangerous dog" under subsection (c) of this section may request in writing to the authority at any time more than 18 months after the date of that determination that it be set aside by following the procedures in this subsection:

(1) Application and assessment required. – The request for set aside of the potentially dangerous dog determination shall be made on an application provided by the authority. The authority may charge a fee to cover the costs of processing and review of the application. The application must also be accompanied by an assessment of the dog completed by a person approved by the authority and accredited by the Certification Council for Professional Dog Trainers or another accrediting body recognized and approved by the authority. The assessment must include, at a minimum, an evaluation of the behavior underlying the declaration that the dog was a potentially dangerous dog and the owner's or keeper's ability to manage the dog.

(2) Factors considered in determination. – The authority shall consider all of the following in reaching its determination:

- a. The outcomes of the assessment described in subdivision (1) of this subsection.
- b. The nature of the original behaviors that led to the "potentially dangerous dog" determination and any other reasons for the original determination.
- c. The management and care of the animal since the determination.
- d. Any changes in the animal's behavior since the declaration due to the animal's age, environment, training, or other factors found to be relevant by the authority.

(3) Decision on declaration. – The authority may revoke the declaration if, after considering the application, the assessment, and the factors described in subdivision (2) of this subsection, the authority determines the dog is no longer potentially dangerous. The authority shall issue written findings to the owner or keeper stating the basis for his or her decision and, if the authority

2                   a new request that the determination be set aside. The authority's decision to
3                   set aside or not set aside a potentially dangerous dog declaration is final and
4                   not subject to any administrative or judicial appeal. No liability shall attach to
5                   any municipality, county, or any employee or officer thereof for a decision
6                   made in accordance with this subsection."
