1 relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6), with domestic criminal trespass,
2 or with violation of an order entered pursuant to Chapter 50B, Domestic 3 Violence, of the General Statutes.

4 (3) Domestic violence victim witness. – An alleged victim in a criminal 5 proceeding involving a crime of domestic violence.

6 (4) Remote testimony. – A method by which a domestic violence victim witness 7 testifies in a criminal proceeding outside of the physical presence of the 9 (b) Remote Testimony Authorized. – In a criminal proceeding, a domestic violence 10 victim witness who has been found competent to testify may testify, under oath or affirmation, 11 other than in an open forum if either of the following circumstances occurs:

13 (2) The court determines that remote testimony is appropriate pursuant to 14 subsection (d) of this section.

15 (c) Notice and Waiver. – In any criminal proceeding, the testimony of a domestic 16 violence victim witness shall be permitted by remote testimony if each of the following 17 circumstances occurs:

18 (1) The State notifies the attorney of record for the defendant, or the defendant if 21 domestic violence victim witness to testify remotely.

22 (2) The defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no 23 attorney, fails to file a written objection with the court, with a copy to the 24 State, at least five business days before the proceeding at which the remote 25 testimony will be used that the defendant objects to the domestic violence 26 victim witness testifying remotely.

27 If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to 28 file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the objection shall be deemed waived

35 (d) Authorized by Court Over Objection. – If a defendant's attorney of record, or the 36 defendant, objects to remote testimony as provided for in subsection (c) of this section, the court

42 trier of fact would be impaired.

43 (e) Hearing Procedure. – Upon motion of a party or the court's own motion, and for good

45 at which the remote testimony is proposed to be allowed to determine whether to allow remote

11 section shall do each of the following:
12 (1) Allow the judge, jury, and defendant to observe the demeanor of the domestic 13 violence victim witness as the witness testifies in a similar manner as if the 14 witness were in the open forum.
15 (2) Allow the judge, jury, defendant, and domestic violence victim witness to see 16 and hear one another in real time.

17 The court shall ensure that the physical location where the domestic violence victim witness 18 testifies has been mutually agreed to by both the defendant and the State or approved by the court.
19 The court shall ensure that both the defendant and the State shall be allowed to have at least two 20 representatives approved by the court, in addition to the prosecutor and defense counsel, present 21 at the location where the domestic violence victim witness is testifying. The court shall ensure 22 that the defense counsel, except a pro se defendant, is physically present where the domestic 23 violence victim witness testifies, has a full and fair opportunity for cross-examination of the 24 domestic violence victim witness, and has the ability to communicate privately with the 25 defendant during the remote testimony. If the defendant is an attorney pro se, the court shall 26 ensure that the defendant has a full and fair opportunity for cross-examination of the domestic 27 violence victim witness. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the provisions of 28 G.S. 15A-1225.

32 the statements or testimony of a domestic violence victim witness in a criminal 33 or noncriminal proceeding.
34 (2) Be construed to require a court, in noncriminal proceedings, to apply the 35 standard set forth in subsection (g) of this section or to deviate from a standard 36 or standards authorized by statute, common law, or rule for allowing the use 37 of remote testimony in noncriminal proceedings."

38 SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 7A-49.6(i) reads as rewritten:
